On 11-8-16, at about 8:05 PM, victim (Female, 50 years) was walking in the 1300 block of Huntington Drive, South Pasadena, CA when she was approached from behind by S1 and S2. Both suspects asked the victim to “come here” several times. The suspects claimed to be undercover officers from Pasadena PD, conducting undercover work and pointed to a badge that S2 wore, however the victim was unable to read the badge. The victim said she was in South Pasadena and asked for identification and the suspects refused. The suspects then walked away when the victim threatened to call the police. Pasadena PD confirmed they did not have any officers in the area.
